

Outreach Programs

Legenter, LLC seeks to achieve a better world through active industry and community involvement. We are available to provide workshops, seminars and speaker services for a nominal fee or expenses, or can customize programs for sponsoring organizations. As a community service, we also work with sponsors to conduct a unique leadership program for youth.

Let's Get Started!

We will develop a program to help you and your organization compete thrive! Every engagement begins with an interview and proposal process for your review and approval. We will establish clear goals and objectives, metrics and a statement of work to maximize return on your dollars.

To begin the process, contact John A. "Jack" Legler, President at 571-748-3955, email: jlegler@legenter.com.

Legenter, LLC is a privately held independent consulting company, utilizing proven state-of-the-profession processes and tools to help our corporate, government, professional and individual clients to identify, meet and exceed their goals through excellence in leadership and performance.

Our Vision

Legenter, LLC is a customer focused, high performing enterprise specializing in human asset development, quality process improvement and strategic planning. Our vision is founded upon the premise that application of the right techniques and methods, through focused facilitation, will unlock the full potential of human assets, optimize organizations, and enable our clients to achieve greatness.

We do not employ “cookie cutter” services and processes for our clients. Our engagements deliver a high level of value, targeted to our clients’ needs and customized to their particular situations. We partner with an internationally recognized support network, Resource Associates Corporation, and the Total Quality Institute (www.RAC-TQI.com). We are located in Northern Virginia, serving the National Capital Region and beyond.

For Companies and Organizations

We work with Companies, Governmental Entities, Trade and Professional Organizations and Small Businesses to identify their vision and develop unique, targeted processes to achieve improved performance. Our facilitations include:

- Customer Service
- Executive Leadership
- Leadership
- Management
- Supervision
- Sales

We build upon these core processes to assist our corporate clients through:

- Executive Strategic Planning
- Entrepreneurial Business Planning
- Departmental Planning
- Annual Goals Review
- Quality Analysis (D.I.A.L.O.G.)
- Time Management

Specialty Services

We provide an array of expert and executive services on hourly or activity based arrangements in the areas of:

- Executive Management Services
- Technical Expert Services in Safety, Risk Management, and Crisis Management
- Consensus Group Administration
- Group Facilitation.

Coaching for Executives, Business Pros and Leaders

We offer regularly-scheduled, open enrollment groups, in Leadership and Sales, as well as one-on-one coaching in any of our processes. We can also set up customized programs for Sponsoring Organizations. For information on our next open group, call us at 571-748-3955, clients@legenter.com.

Our Mission—Your Success!

Legenter, LLC is certified to facilitate all of RAC’s internationally recognized processes. At the core is the Success Formula, which focuses on meaningful, mission-oriented goals, improving knowledge and goal setting skills at all levels in the organization. We utilize spaced repetition to facilitate the replacement of negative, success inhibiting behaviors and attitudes with positive, goal oriented ones. Through audio/visual materials, assignments and facilitated discussions over 8-10 weeks, with follow-ups, every individual in an organization, from customer service to CEO, will achieve better balance in critical activity areas. Results are significant, sustainable performance improvements and enhancement of quality of life at work
